

Stricken Area Gets Help From UIC Students

(COURIER NEWS SERVICE)
FAYETTE — Classes and activities at Upper Iowa College were dismissed Tuesday to allow students and faculty members to assist in relief work in the nearby tornado-stricken communities of Osceola and Maynard.

More than 500 students answered the call for workers and spent the day helping officials clear debris, cut trees, and perform other tasks in the two disaster areas. Many students responded to the plea for help shortly after the tornadoes struck Wednesday afternoon, and worked through the night.

Faculty members, too, donated overalls and work clothes and assisted in the cleanup process.

Two spring activities scheduled for Thursday were postponed: the annual President's Jucio (Jukebox-a-thon) will be held on Tuesday, while the scheduled sidewalk art show and sale will be held "on the first sunny day," according to Phil Manning, head of the Art Department.

The faculty picnic, scheduled for Friday at Klock's Island Park, has been postponed until next Friday, May 24.

The Professional Food Service Management Co., which operates the cafeteria at Upper Iowa, prepared sack lunches for students working in the cleanup, and also furnished food for the Red Cross centers.

Dr. Eugene E. Garber, president, stated today that both students and faculty will continue to offer assistance as long as such aid is needed; however, it was expected that classes would be resumed Friday morning.

Luther College Will Graduate Largest Class

(COURIER NEWS SERVICE)
DECAH — Luther College's largest graduating class of senior students in history, 387, will receive their diplomas this afternoon in the annual commencement exercises.

The students will be graduated in ceremonies beginning at 2:30 p.m. in Luther's Field House.

Speaker will be the Honorable Edward Hambr, ambassador, permanent representative to Norway to the United Nations. He'll discuss "United Nations: Crisis and Challenge."

Ambassador Hambr also will receive an honorary Doctor of Laws degree.

Two other distinguished church and educational leaders will receive honorary degrees: Sister Anna Ida Gannon, B.V.M., president of Mundelein College in Chicago, will receive an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree, and Dr. George S. Schulz, executive secretary of the Board of Trustees of the American Lutheran Church, will receive an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree.

Baccalaureate services will be held Sunday morning at 10:30 a.m. in Luther Field House with the Rev. John S. Schmitt, pastor of the First Lutheran church, presiding.

The title of his talk is "The New Direction."

The gift to help them graduate again

This dictionary is designed for the high school graduate who wants all the help he can get in college.

It's easy to use—definitions are unusually clear, pronunciations are easy to follow. And it contains all the information he's likely to need about words—including comprehensive definitions, usage notes, examples, and full word histories.

Webster's New World Dictionary is the one to give him.
